Who can buy at Aqipa?

David Lackner - 2021-10-15 - Buy from Aqipa - New customers

Aqipa is a B2B distributor for premium consumer electronics. We serve retailers throughout Europe, whether online only, omnichannel or physical retail. We sell to specialist retailers, electronics chains, department stores, discounters and, for project sales, to hotels, companies, etc. as well. To purchase from Aqipa, you need to register as a customer (--> link form). After we've checked your details, you'll be saved as a new customer and assigned to a sales employee / sales region. Using your issued customer number, you can also register in our self-service portal and then simply order online, check stock levels, track orders and pull up your conditions.
