Distribution with Aqipa - Become a distribution partner

David Lackner - 2021-07-28 - Selling with Aqipa - Partner

In countries without our own offices, we work with distribution partners. We are currently represented in all Eastern European countries, and we are always open to make new contacts. Especially for our global brands Braun Audio (premium hi-fi) and Pure (digital radios), we are looking for promising distribution partners all around the world, in particular Asia and North/South America.
